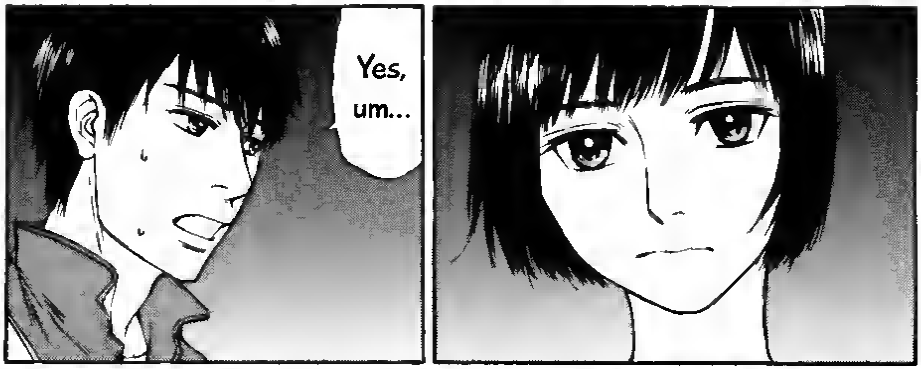
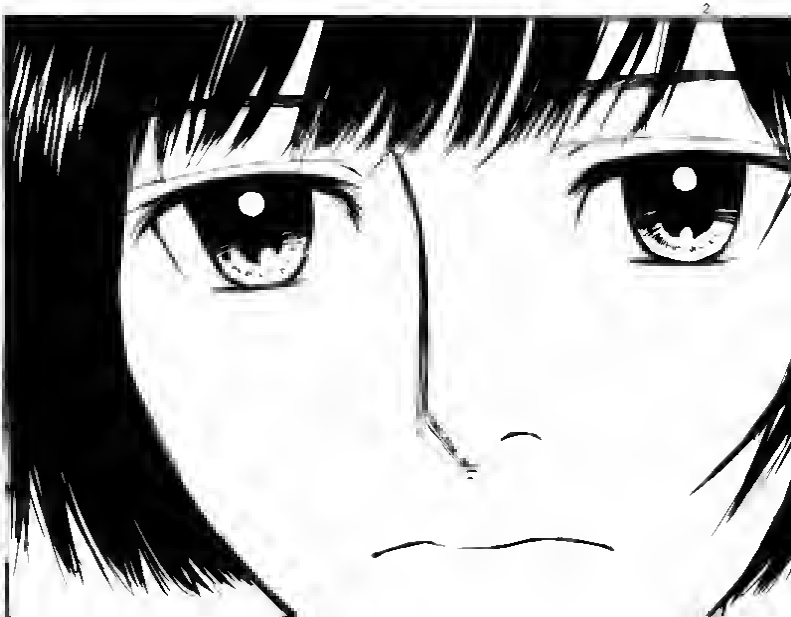
Kuni-kida-san...
So you're using me to mastur-bate...



Yes, um...

Uh...



I'm sorry!
Uh, I did think lewd things about you, but...
No, um, just... I'm sorry!
It's not because I think bad of you...
Who else do you fantasize about?
Wh-What?
Who else?
3
I-I'm still new and inexperienced at this thing, um, so far you're the only one I thought about.
Eh...
Anyone else—?

I wonder why...?
Uh, no...
Hmm
Don't you fantasize about your own girl-friend?
I'm sorry for saying so much impolite things...
Why me?
SNORT
How should I answer ...?!
That is...

Yes, I'm sorry.
Kunikida-san, you are a wondrous person to me.
Sorry.
I guess it's not something you can simply answer when asked.
At this point, I think Yuka-san has told me almost everything you have ever said to her.
Did you hear about this from Yuka?
I heard that... that is something every men does.
And you're amazing for not knowing about it until now.

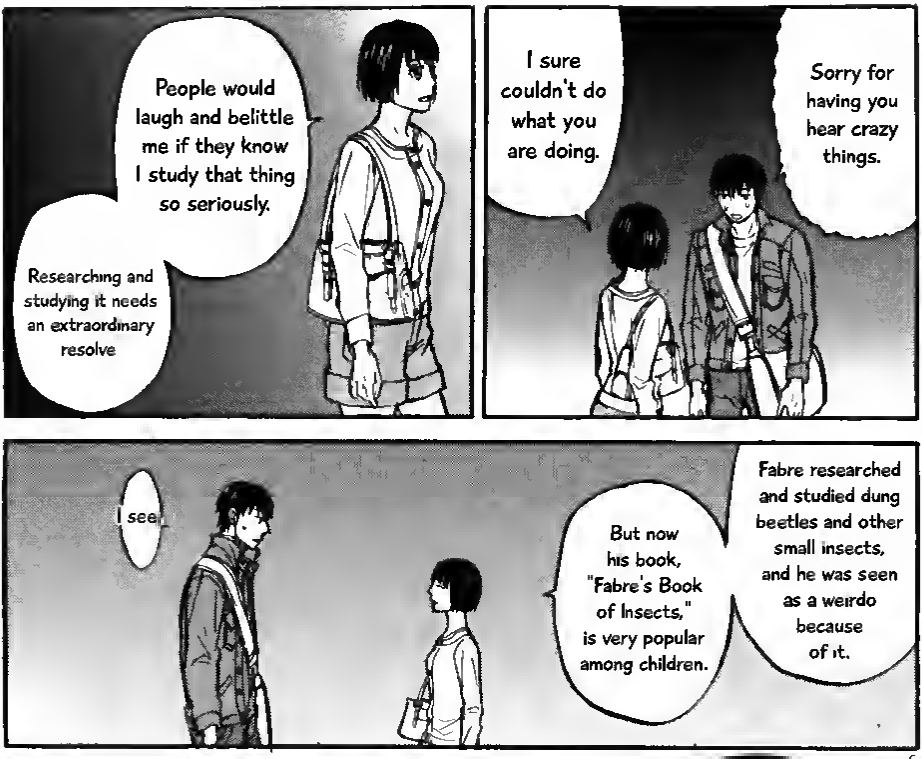
I don't know anything, so I am currently learning masturbation from the very basics in that place.
It encompasses psychology, biology, and even sociology. It's really interesting.
How did I explain this to Yuka again?



People would laugh and belittle me if they know I study that thing so seriously.
Researching and studying it needs an extraordinary resolve
I sure couldn't do what you are doing.
Sorry for having you hear crazy things.
I see.
But now his book, "Fabre's Book of Insects," is very popular among children.
Fabre researched and studied dung beetles and other small insects, and he was seen as a weirdo because of it.

I can't help you with it directly, but feel free to "use" me whenever you see fit.

It's getting cold now. Let's head home.
Ah, okay.

Maybe it's because I'm freezing,
but Izumi-san's body feels warm.

Kuni-kida-san.
Ah, yes?
Lend me your ear for a sec.
What is it?

はむっ

Next stop, Sankyuudai.

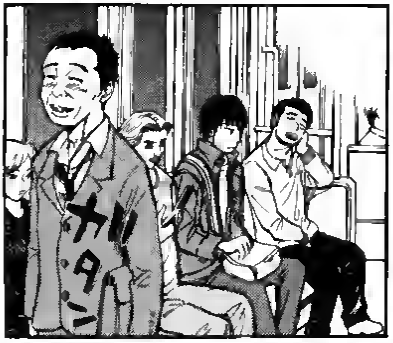
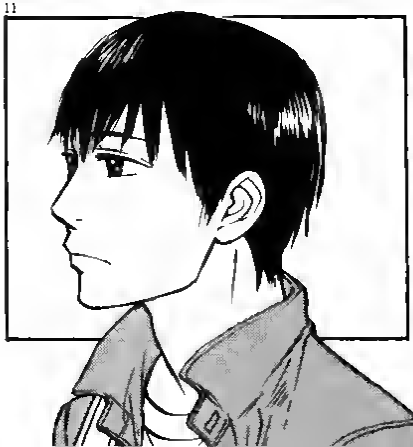
Maybe a bit of real experience could help you.
Izumi-san...

I'm getting off here.
Thank you for accompanying me tonight.



11



kouhai = junior, as in Izumi is the first person to start working there after Youichi

I made stew for you and waited so we could eat together, you know.
But I already ate mine because you took too long.
Ah, okay.
I'm home.
Welcome back.
You're pretty late.
Yeah.
13
Hmph, you never honestly praise me.
Surprisingly good for something you made.
So? Tastes good, right?
I made lots if you want seconds.

But whatever, I'm feeling happy today so I'll let you off.
Yeah, but you can go first.
カチャ
Onii-chan, won't you take a bath?
14
Okay, then.

Mnnh... It okay...
Must be way back ..

That was just a brief light bite to my ear... but it shook my body to the core.
